Item 5.02: Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 1, 2021, David G. Harker, Executive Vice President - Central Region of First Industrial Realty Trust, Inc. (the “Company”), notified the Company of his intention to retire from the Company effective as of June 30, 2021. Mr. Harker has agreed to remain with the Company on a part-time basis to facilitate a transition of his duties over a period of time expected to last six to nine months after June 30, 2021, although either party may terminate the arrangement prior to the expiration of this transition period. The terms of Mr. Harker’s employment during this transition period are not yet determined, but will not result in the payment of material compensation to him in connection with such transition services. During this transition period, Mr. Harker will continue to be eligible for Company benefits on the same terms and conditions as provided generally to other part-time employees.

Pursuant to the Company’s succession planning, Mr. Harker’s duties will be assumed by Johannson L. Yap and Peter O. Schultz.

The Company thanks Mr. Harker for his more than 23 years of service and contributions to the Company and wishes him well as he looks forward to his retirement.

Item 7.01: Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 5, 2021, the Company issued a press release with respect to the retirement of Mr. Harker. A copy of the press release is attached and incorporated by reference as Exhibit 99.1.

MEDIA RELEASE

First Industrial Realty Trust Announces Retirement of David G. Harker, Executive Vice President – Central Region

CHICAGO, April 5, 2021 – First Industrial Realty Trust, Inc. (NYSE: FR), a leading fully integrated owner, operator, and developer of industrial real estate, announced today that David G. Harker, Executive Vice President – Central Region has notified First Industrial of his intention to retire from the Company effective as of June 30, 2021. Consistent with the company’s succession planning, Johannson L. Yap and Peter O. Schultz each will assume portions of Mr. Harker’s duties.

Since joining First Industrial in 1998, Mr. Harker has provided thoughtful leadership to his team and made countless contributions to the transformation of the First Industrial portfolio and our operations, delivering outstanding results. Mr. Harker has also been an enthusiastic supporter of the communities in which First Industrial operates, including his long-standing commitment to the San Miguel School of Chicago.

“Our company and our shareholders have benefited greatly from David’s business expertise and real estate acumen. We wish him well as he looks forward to his retirement,” said Peter E. Baccile, President and CEO of First Industrial.

Forward-Looking Information

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We intend for such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are based on certain assumptions and describe our future plans, strategies and expectations, and are generally identifiable by use of the words "believe," "expect," "plan," "intend," "anticipate," "estimate," "project," "seek," "target," "potential," "focus," "may," "will," "should" or similar words. Although we believe the expectations reflected in forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, we can give no assurance that our expectations will be attained or that results will not materially differ. Factors which could have a materially adverse effect on our operations and future prospects include, but are not limited to: changes in national, international, regional and local economic conditions generally and real estate markets specifically; changes in legislation/regulation (including changes to laws governing the taxation of real estate investment trusts) local economic conditions generally and real estate markets specifically; changes in legislation/regulation (including changes to laws governing the taxation of real estate investment trusts) and actions of regulatory authorities; the uncertainty and economic impact of pandemics, epidemics or other public health emergencies or fear of such events, such as the recent outbreak of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19); our ability to qualify and maintain our status as a real estate investment trust; the availability and attractiveness of financing (including both public and private capital) and changes in interest rates; the availability and attractiveness of terms of additional debt repurchases; our ability to retain our credit agency ratings; our ability to comply with applicable financial covenants; our competitive environment; changes in supply, demand and valuation of industrial properties and land in our current and potential market areas; our ability to identify, acquire, develop and/or manage properties on favorable terms; our ability to dispose of properties on favorable terms; our ability to manage the integration of properties we acquire; potential liability relating to environmental matters; defaults on or non-renewal of leases by our tenants; decreased rental rates or increased vacancy rates; higher-than-expected real estate construction costs and delays in development or lease-up schedules; potential natural disasters and other potentially catastrophic events such as acts of war and/or terrorism; litigation, including costs associated with prosecuting or defending claims and any adverse outcomes; risks associated with our investments in joint ventures, including our lack of sole decision-making authority; and other risks and uncertainties described under the heading "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020, as well as those risks and uncertainties discussed from time to time in our other Exchange Act reports and in our other public filings with the SEC. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect our outlook only and speak only as of the date of this press release or the dates indicated in the statements. We assume no obligation to update or supplement forward-looking statements. For further information on these and other factors that could impact us and the statements contained herein, reference should be made to our filings with the SEC.
